

Élisabeth Renaud, daughter of Antoine Renaud and Étienne Clignier, Saint-Étienne, Bar-sur-Seine, Aube

The records are not complete. However, the extant records begin in 1615 and continue into 1616. Then there is a gap until 1626. Then May 1644, 1645, 1646, 1647, 1648, 1649, 1650, to May 1651, then back to May 1631 to December 1631; ripped pages that start in March 1632, and incomplete records for 1632, January 1633 to April 1633; 14 May 1639 to May 1641; 1660-1661, burials.

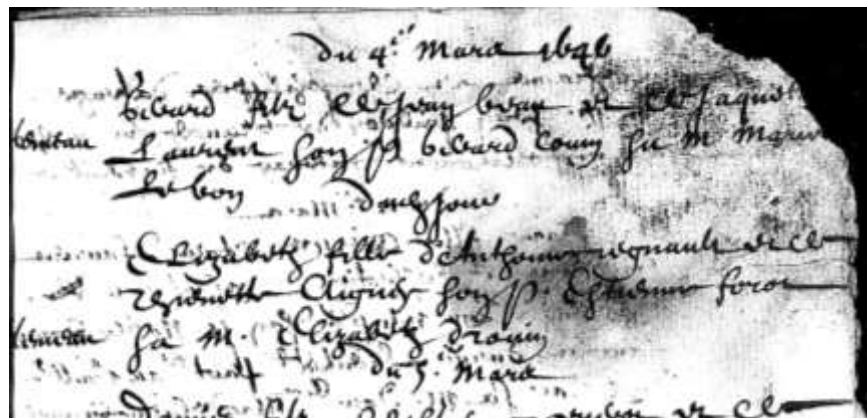

Because the extant records are not complete, the marriage has not been found for Antoine Renaud and Étienne Clignier/Clignier. Also, only three baptismal records have been found for their children: François, 21 August 1639; Claude, 13 April 1641; and Élisabeth, 4 March 1646. Étienne Clignier was buried 1 September 1662. At the time of her marriage, in both the church act and the marriage contract, it was not indicated that either parent was deceased.
