Dear Brother Hayes and Sister Bauer,

I have been doing research on your Guillory line and here are the results to date:

Film 616,296 St.Sauveur Paris, Blois, Loire-et-Cher, France (called in films sometimes parish of Chastrou, possibly because it was near the chateau or Castle at Blois.

- (a) Started with 27 Oct. 1641 though the film begins in 1617.
  - Aug. 1642 Francois Guillory named as a godfather in an entry.
  - Chr. _____ Oct. 1642 Denis Guillory, son of Francois GULLORY and of Elisabeth THOMAS.
  - 24 May 1642 Elisabeth Guyllory, age about 3 years old was buried.
  - Checked to the end of the film.
  - Went back and started 1 April 1633 (handwriting not easy to read)
  - 11 Aug. 1634 Chr. of Margherite Saphorin (sorry missed father's name but will get it) . . . and of Marie Guillory (the mother).
  - 3 Dec. 1635 Chr. of Gabriel GULLORY, son of Francois Guillory, master Arquebusier (former synonym of an armurier which was a person who fabricated and sold arms (guns) and of Elisabeth THOMAS of this parish.

  - Elisabeth THOMAS wife of Francois GULLORY, age about 44 years was buried 10 Nov. 1650.

c) Film 616, 296 again

looking for chr. of Francois Guillory born about 1634 and for marriage of his parents.

First part of film was marriages (1609 plus). I started in 1621 and went into the middle of the 1630's without seeing the Guillory-Thomas marriage. Checked chr. 1609 to March 1610 and resumed in Oct. 1626. Mid 1633 to middle of 1635 and didn't see any more Guillory christenings. This means that I examined this last portion twice.

1. CONCLUSIONS: Your Simon Guillory's mother, Elisabeth Thomas, died when he was about four. Likely his father wd. (2) Anne Galou and she was the only mother that he remembered very well. The parish being the correct one, the birth date of Simon being satisfactory, his father's name being correct, and the fact that his mother died when he was about 4 1/2 all prove that we have your ancestor's birth.

2. I suggest that you designate a family member to put these entries on individual entry forms and submit them for processing.

3. It would appear that Francois Guillory Sr. and his wife came into the St. Sauveur parish after their marriage and the birth of their probable son Francois. I ordered today films of other parishes, several of them indexed. When they come I hope to resume the research. It will take 2 or 3 months, (for them to print the films at the vault and send them to the Little used film area of the Library).

4. Family of Francois Guillory and wife Elisabeth Thomas (born abt. 1606)

(prob) Francois who died 6 July 1650 age 16

3 Dec. 1635 Gabriel

21 Dec. 1636 Marie (died 22 Aug. 1650)

30 Sept. 1639 Louise ( ? )

26 April 1641 Elisabeth (buried 24 May 1642)

Oct. 1642 Denis

16 Feb. 1646 your ancestor SIMON.

10 Nov. 1650 burial of Elisabeth Thomas, mother of the above children.

Probable remarriage of father to Anne Galou, perhaps in another parish as it was not seen.

In an envelope in your folder, sent from Toulon, Var, France. The Librarian of the City of Toulon says that this may or not be your ancestor but that they don't find his marriage at Toulon, meaning that he may have gone to the USA:

Anne Moutonne was born 23 May 1709, the godfather was Jerome Marquisy chevalier de fars and godmother Helene Ardan.

Bourbard line. I haven't yet succeeded in getting researchers in Pas-de-Calais or Aisne, but will try again. I have hopes of going on further in the Guillory and Thomas lines,

Sincerely your brother,

THE GUILLORYS OF LOUISIANA
by Jacqueline Olivier Vidrine

The GUILLORY families of Louisiana can trace their ancestry to a couple whose marriage is recorded in the Mobile, Alabama Church Archives on 20 Aug. 1739. Gregoire (Joseph) GUILLORY, a resident of Dauphine Island at that time, was a son of deceased Francois GUILLORY of Montreal and Jeanne MONFORT of Belle Isle en Mer, Diocese of Vannes, France. His bride, Marie Jeanne LACASE, daughter of Jean LACASE and Marie Ann FOURCHE, had been born in Mobile on 20 Mar. 1726 and baptized that same day. She married in 1737, Joseph STAMEYER dit Chateauneuf, a soldier in LESUEUR's company; but was soon widowed. She was not yet fourteen years old at the time of her second marriage. By the time of her death in April, 1764, she had produced at least eight children, only one of these pre-deceasing their mother (Marie-Louise, b. June 1748, d. May 1749. Her parents were living at Fish Island at that time.) These records are from the Mobile, Alabama Church Archives.

It is not known where the parents of Gregoire GUILLORY married. The Mobile marriage records before 1724 are no longer extant. It is possible that Francois GUILLORY married Jeanne MONFORT in France since there were several ships sailing between Mobile and France before 1709, the probable year he moved to Massacre Island and began planting vegetables. By 1710, he had built a house on the eastern end of that island, on the point given the name Pointe à Guillory. (The names Pointe à Guillory, Passe à Guillory, and Isle à Guillory appear on a map done in 1718. Jay Higginbotham, Old Mobile. Mobile City Museum, 1977, pp. 271, 345, 391, 393, 397f, 447f; Appendix, n.p.) However, it is possible that he remained unmarried for several years after founding a habitation on the island.

Another GUILLORY researcher has found records showing that Francois left Montreal in 1704 and offers the possibility that he left with (one of the) LEMOYNES for a voyage to France and married there between 1704-1706, probably at Belle-Isle-en-Mer.

The estate of the late GUILLORY is in litigation in September 1727. (LHQ IV:417: Neither his given name nor his spouse is mentioned in the abstract. The original has not been seen. Although the plural, "children" and "heirs" is used in the abstract, only Gregoire has been found in the church records.) This is almost certainly Francois who is deceased. Nothing is known of his spouse, Jeanne MONFORT.

Francois GUILLORY, a sailer (mentioned as "matelot" on a note taken from page 27 Rencensements, a manuscript copy of French Archives at the Louisiana Historical Museum Library in New Orleans, La.), seems to be the Francois baptized on 18 Mar. 1767 at Montreal, the son of Simon GUILLORY and Louise BOUCHARD. Certainly, Simon and Louise were parents of the early settler in the Louisiana Province, although he may have been a younger son also named Francois. Simon is the only GUILLORY listed in Tanguay (Dictionnaire Genealogique des Familles Canadiennes I, IV, 1967 reprinted) in the appropriate generation.

Simon GUILLORY arrived at the city of Quebec on 25 May 1664 aboard the ship "Le Noir", which had sailed from La Rochelle, France. (letter from R. J. Auger, Archives du Quebec, to Byron Smith of New Orleans, La. dated 29 Jan. 1975. Our thanks to Mr. Smith for sharing this with GUILLORY descendants.) On the 1666 Census of Montreal, GUILLORY is listed as a domestic employee of Charles LEMOYNE. (Father of Bienville and Iberville. Bienville was four years younger and Iberville was fifteen years older than Francois GUILLORY.)

Simon GUILLORY was christened on 16 Feb. 1646 at the church of St. Sauveur in Blois, department of Loir-et-Cher, France. Blois is a city on the Loire River, 172 kilometers southwest of Paris. The historic chateau dates from the 15th century and has been a well-known center since the Middle Ages. (reconstructed in the 17th century, general restoration in the 19th and 20th centuries: See Guide Bleu, France, 1977, p. 742-745).

St. Nicolas, formerly the Abbey Saint-Laumer, was built in the 12th and 13th centuries. The lower city, east of the chateau, was partly reconstructed after World War II damaged it. I think the researcher mis-read LAUMER as SAUVEUR. The buildings of the ancient abbaye de Saint-Laumer (1663-1723, enlarged in 1845) are now a hospital.

All GUILLORY descendants owe a debt of gratitude to Wade Hayes of Vidor, Texas who shared the findings of professional research done in France, under the direction of the French and Mediterranean Genealogical Research Association of Salt Lake City, Utah.

*****

The parents of Simon GUILLORY were Francois GUILLORY "honêt homme" (honnête homme: honorable man; born of an honorable family) and master "arquebusier" (the arquebuses were the first firearms, small-arms, used by French soldiers from 1525 to 1631 and the old meaning of arquebusier was a soldier armed with an arquebuse. An even more ancient meaning was as a synonym for armurier, one who makes, repairs, or sells arms.) and Elizabeth (Isabeth, Lizabeet) THOMAS, b. ca. 1606. No record of their marriage has been found, but several entries in the Saint-Laumer (Sauveur?) registers give baptisms and funerals for several of their children.

Francois, b. ca 1632-1634, d. 6 July 1650 at the age of 16 (probable)

Gabriel, bt. 3 Dec. 1635 at St. Saviour Parish, Blois, Loir-et-Cher

Marie, bt. 21 Dec. 1636 at St. Saviour Parish, buried 22 Aug. 1650, age ca 12

Louise, bt. 30 Sept. 1639 at St. Saviour Parish

Elizabeth, b. 26 April 1641, buried 24 May 1642 at St. Saviour Parish

Denis, bt. Oct. 1642 at St. Saviour Parish

Simon, bt. 16 Feb. 1646 at St. Saviour Parish or Le Chastrou Parish at Blois m. 6 Nov. 1667 to Louise BOUCHARD, child of Laurent and Nicolle BUGON; came to America (Canada) in 1664; identified as armurier in 1667; mother named as Anne GAIYOU in 1667.

Elizabeth THOMAS was about 44 years old when she died in 1650. Her funeral is recorded on November 10 at St. Laumer, only a few months after the death of two children, almost certainly hers: Francois, probably her first-born, was 16 years of age when he was buried on 6 July 1650; Marie, buried on 22 Aug. 1650, was 12 or 13. Her age on the funeral record is 12 years, but she is very probably the Marie, christened on 21 Dec. 1636. Since no baptismal record can be found for Francois GUILLORY, b. ca 1633-1634, and no GUILLORY-THOMAS marriage was found at St. Laumer, it is possible to assume that they lived elsewhere at the time of their marriage and until shortly before the birth of their son Gabriel, who was baptized at Saint-Laumer on 3 Dec. 1635.

Simon GUILLORY married on 6 Nov. 1667 at Montreal, Louise BOUCHARD (1647-1703) the daughter of Laurent BOUCHARD and Nicole BUGON of Neufchatel in Picardy. In Tanguay, Simon GUILLORY, armurier, b. ca 1646, d. 6 Dec. 1696, drowned at Sault-St.-Louis, is the son of Francois and Anne GAIYOU of Chastrou, diocese of Blois. This is now known to be incorrect

Simon GUILLORY married on 6 Nov. 1667 at Montreal, Louise BOUCHARD, b. 1647 probably at Neufchatel in Picardy, France, buried 1 Sept. 1703 at the Church of the Recollets in Montreal, Canada. Ten children of this marriage, born at Montreal between 1670 and 1682, are as follows:

Guillaume, b. 14 April 1670

Marie, b. 27 Jan. 1673, d. 20 Feb. 1673

Jeanne Francoise, b. 12 April 1674, d. 6 June 1700 at Varennes. She married on 1 Feb. 1694, Jacques GAUDRY

Francois, b. 18 March 1676 at Montreal, m. Jeanne MONFORT of Belle Isle

Simon, b. 12 Sept. 1678, d. 6 Dec. 1698, m. 30 April 1696 at Montreal to Marie ALY, b. 11 Sept. 1679 at Lachine, the child of Vincent ALY dit Larosee and Marie PERRIN

Marie Anne, b. 20 June 1680

Anne (twin), b. 15 June 1681, d. 17 June 1681

Marie Magdeline (twin), b. 15 June 1681, d. 6 March 1704 at Lachine, m. 2 March 1699 Antoine TESSEROT

Louise, b. 30 Dec. 1682, m. 14 Aug. 1701 to Jean Baptiste MASSIOT

Marie Francoise, d. 25 Jan. 1727, became Soeur Ste. Suzanne, Congregation Notre Dame

Gregoire GUILLORY, resident of Dauphine Island in 1739, was the child of Francois of Montreal and Jeanne MONFORT of Belle Isle in Mer. He married 20 Aug. 1739 at Mobile, Marie Jeanne LACASSE (bt. 20 March 1729 at Mobile, d. 28 April 1764 at Mobile), the daughter of Jean LACASSE of Bearn and Marie Anne FOURCHE. Marie Jeanne was the widow of Joseph ESTAMIER (STAMEYER) dit Chateaufort. (Joseph STAMEYER on marriage, STAIMER on his funeral record, m. 21 Nov. 1737 at Mobile, Marie Jeanne LACASSE, daughter of Jean LACASSE dit La Douceur and Marianne FOURCHE, native of Epernay, diocese of Reims in Champagne.) Children of the Gregoire GUILLORY-Marie Jeanne LACASSE marriage are as follows:

Marie Jeanne, bt. Sept. 1740 at Mobile, m. Joseph (REJAS) LAPRADE who d. 22 Jan. 1759. She m. second, Jean Claude DUPONT on 14 April 1760 at Mobile, the son of Jean Claude and Marie Anne FOUCAULT. The children of the DUPONT-GUILLORY marriage of 1760 were Marie Louise, b. Dec. 1763, bt. Feb. 1764, and a son, Louis.

Francoise, m. Jean CUAN (BAHAN) dit Genty. The children of this marriage are Jean Baptiste, b. 1765, Rene, b. 1766, Jean-Baptiste and Pierre, both bt. 1773.

Pierre Gregoire, b. 30 May 1742 at Mobile

Jean Baptiste, b. 1 July 1746

Marie Louise, b. 5 June 1748 at Mobile, d. 2 May 1749 at Mobile

Claude, b. 5 July 1750 at Mobile

Joseph, b. 5 Nov. 1752 at Mobile

Louis, b. 22 Dec. 1754 at Mobile

After the English occupied Mobile, Gregoire withdrew to the French side. When he arrived in Opelousas, he hurried to see about acquiring land. Louis PELLERIN, the Commandant who received his request in February, 1763, gave him a written permission dated November, 1764, to choose land (16 arpents front by 40 deep) for his establishment and asked Jacques COURTABLEAU, Captain of the Quartier, to assist him.

Hearing about a piece of land that had been abandoned since early in 1763 (COLET had abandoned it in March 1762, and another early in 1763 and moved south in June 1763, possibly to St. Martinville. All grants were provisional.), he claimed it and on 11 Feb. 1765, AUBRY and FOUCAULT, the Commander and the Ordonateur of Louisiana Province, signed the provisional grant.

For eighteen months he worked to replace the fences and perhaps the cabin which COLET had left in ruins. Possibly, he lived in the cabin as soon as it was habitable. ALLAIN was an occasional guest. (This ALLAIN was a brother of Marie Augustine-ALLAIN. Her brothers were Augustin who m. in 1776, Charlotte Julie RICARD, and Jean Francois who had m. in 1761, Marie Francoise RICARD. The RICARD girls were daughters of Pierre RICARD and Marie Louise DESNOYER.

The land had six arpents facing the Bayou Opelousas and ten other arpents facing Bayou Boeuf. His neighbors on Bayou Opelousas were LAMIRANDE (probably Joseph LAMIRANDE who m. in 1758 at Pointe Coupee, Marie Catherine FREDERIC. He may be the Joseph who d. in Opelousas in 1796.) and the yacherie (cattle farm) belonging to RICHARD (probably Pierre RICARD of Pointe Coupee, warehouse keeper and later judge).

Louis LANGLOIS (who m. at Pointe Coupee in 1764, Perinne GUEHO), Philippe DUPLECHIN (probably Philippe whose wife's, Reine BOFTZ, succession is in the Opelousas Archives 1772), and SAINT-AMANT certified that this land had truly been abandoned by COLET (almost certainly a son of Nicolas PREVOST dit Collette and Yves DUBOS).

On 2 March 1767, Gregoire was living in New Orleans at the home of one DOUCET, an attorney (procurer). Still considered habitant of Opelousas, he had been in the city since before the New Year awaiting confirmation of title to his land. This was received on 29 Dec. 1766.

Tired of the whole procedure but not tired of the city, he remained with DOUCET. Triumphant in his victory, he commissioned the huissier audiancier of the Superior Council, Joseph MAISON, to deliver a copy of the decree to the widow GIRARD (Marie Augustine ALLAIN, native of Pointe Coupee, daughter of Jean Francois ALLAIN, militia captain, and Marie Augustine HAUSSY. She married Henry GERARD/GIRARD, surgeon major, on 30 March 1761 and he died in February, 1763.). It seems to have been delivered to the office of the Attorney General of the Province because he acted for absent persons.

By an act of sale on 27 April 1778, Baptiste GUILLORY, the son of Gregoire, sold the six arpents frontage (by 40 deep) on Bayou Opelousas and also ten other arpents fronting on Bayou Boeuf. The act was recorded by DECLOUET, the Commandant, and the purchaser, John GRADENIGO, took possession. (Refer to QB Claims, B 2000-2099 Gales & Seaton Vol. II, pp. 856-863, #5 Opelousas)

On 29 March 1819, Joseph GUILLORY, Francois VEILLON, and Seth HANCHETT, bought, jointly, from Etienne de VEDRINE, the land for which he had filed a claim with the United States. VEDRINE had occupied and cultivated that tract of four hundred superficial arpents (ten arpents front, forty arpents deep) continuously since the fifteenth of September, 1796, when he had requested the land and received from the Opelousas Post Commandant, a certificate of approval. The location of the land was given as situated on the Grand Woods of Wells, bounded on one side by Pierre VEDRINE and on the other by vacant land. Joseph and his partners brought the deed to this tract in to the Land Office at Opelousas on 6 April 1819 with the request that the patent certificate be issued in their names. (Photocopy from Catherine BAILLIO FUTCH to JOV dated ca 1973. No source was given, but it was probably land office papers, headed No. 89, dated Opelousas, July 30, 1812.)

The GUILLORYS of Louisiana

Compiled by Elaine Miller Richardson

[I have done this research using my own files and those of the late Mrs. Elaine Guillory Pucheu, who did much research on the Guillorys in order to make up a book to leave to her children.

This Guillory Family Outline works with the older Guillory Families; any help with corrections or additions will be greatly appreciated.]
