

I received info from the Cercle Genealogie de Saintonge about the marriage record of Jacques Poissant and Elizabet Magord, the parents of the pioneer Jacques Poissant dit Lasaline. I have found the actual marriage act in Salt Lake City last week on film # 1713797 for the La Tremblade reformed church and have created this attachment.

Merci beaucoup, John Fisher / Poissant Burlington, VT

	Jacques Poissant & Suzanne Guichard
	Married on the last Sunday of January 1638 [Calculated to be the 31st] [Jacques was alive in 1661 for the baptism of his son Jacques, but deceased in 1670 when his 2nd wife, Elizabeth Magord died. I did not find a death record for him, maybe he died elsewhere] [Jacques occupation was Sergeant Royal (A person who was charged to apply the decisions of court. He was equipped with a mace and preceded the personalities at the time of any court processions)]
1	Raimond / Raymond Poissan
B	[Late 1638 or early 1639 based on his death record. Did I miss this record, or was he born & baptised elsewhere? Being the first child in the family, the godparents would have been Jacques parents, or at least one of the godparents.]
D	Thursday 16 Feb 1679 is deceased, Raymond Poissant - clothing tailor – age 41 - assisting at his interment was Pierre Poissan, master shoemaker, and Samuel Poissan, master clothing tailor, his first cousins, all from Marennes. [Pierre and Samuel signed]
2	Jacques Poissan
B	Bap. 7 April 1641; born 11 September 1640 GP: Mr. Jacques Mestivier/Mestinier and Elizabeth Gabio the ??? of April 1641 [I will use the Mestivier surname from now on] [after the godmothers name, its unusual to see more info but here we see a date; did the baby die soon after?]
3	Suzanne Poissan
B	Bap. Thursday, 6 Feb 1645, born 6 October GP: Jacques Geay? & Suzanne Delaruze
4	Jaques Poissat
B	Thursday, 28 Nov 1649, born 6 Sep GP: Jacques Lini & Elizabeth Testefolle
5	Abraham Poissant
B	Bap. Sunday 28 April 1652, born 7 Sep GP: Abraham Poissan & Anne Savie
