

Handwritten text in French, likely a baptismal record. The text is written in a cursive script and is somewhat difficult to read due to the handwriting. It appears to be a record of a baptism performed by a priest named Fran. Letard on the 13th day of April, 1632, for a child named Pierre, son of Pierre Voyer and Marguerite Fouasnon. The godfather is identified as Marin Voyer, son of Marin Voyer and Marianne Michelle, wife of Michel Engoulenent.

Baptême Pierre Voyer/Vayer 13 avril 1632 St-Rémy, Marolles-les-Braults, Sarthe, France

Transcription :

pierre filz de pierre vayer er de margueritte fouasnon a este baptize par maistre fran. Letard ptre le treziesme Jour dapvril audict an son parain marin filz de marin vayer sa
marainne michelle femme de michel engoulenent

Handwritten text in French, likely a baptismal record. The text is written in a cursive script and is somewhat difficult to read due to the handwriting. It appears to be a record of a baptism performed by a priest named Nicolas Doguet on the 28th day of June, 1640, for a child named Louis, son of Pierre Vayer and Marguerite Fouasnon. The godfather is identified as Louis Langelier, son of Louis Langelier and Renee Barbier, widow of Charles Bataille.

Baptême Louis Vayer 28 juin 1640, St-Rémy, Marolles-les-Braults, Sarthe, France

Transcription :

Louis filz de pierre vayer Et de ma[rguerite] fouasnon sa femme a esté bapti[sé]
par maistre nicolas doguet ptre l[e]
ving huitiesme Jour de Juin au[dit]
an son parain Louis langelier sa mar[raine] Renee barbier veuve charle batalle

Sépulture Marguerite Fouasnon 15 décembre 1641
St-Rémy, Marolles-les-Braults, Sarthe, France

Transcription :

La femme de pierre vayer fut
Inhumee dans Ce cymetiere le seans par ledict sieur hoyau ptre le quinziesme Jour dudict mois Et an present ledict vayer Julian ligot ???
???? Et austres

Les noms de familles Vayer, Fouasnon & Engoulenent sont confirmés par plusieurs actes de baptêmes, mariages et sépultures de la paroisse.